Congressman André Carson stood up to the special interests and supported President Obama’s plan that could create 38,000 jobs in Indiana.* The American Clean Energy and Security Act is a common-sense plan that could cut oil imports by $20 billion a year, keep energy affordable, and provide a cleaner world for our kids and grandkids.

Thank you, Congressman Carson, for fighting for a better future for all of us.